BETTER THAN GOLD!

Mr. J. E. Bousn-Dear Sir: I feel it a duty to make known the benefit I have derived from Dr. Hampton's VEGETABLE TINCTURE. For a number of years I suffered from disease, but to a greater degree for the last three years. One of the forms of my disease was dyspepsia. From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an exsia. From this dreadful malady I suffered to such an extent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on me was different to that on any other person of whom I have heard; at times it was like the palpitation of the heart; there was a constant thumping and beating without intermission about the region of my heart, chest, and stomach; some of the attacks would last for weeks; my stomach was much distended, with constant pain, great weakness, and constitution of the bowels. I could not cat the most simple food without pain. I also suffered greatly from disease of the kidneys, with constant pain in the back, that I could walk only with great difficulty. I tried nearly sil of the most celebrated patent medicines of the day, but found no relief. I had also the best medical attendance. One of my physicians frankly told me it was of no use for me to be paying him for advice, as he could do me no good. I gave up almost in despair, and thought my disease certainly incurable.

At this juncture I heard of Hampton's Vegetable Tincture. I refused to give it a trial, aithough persuaded by my friends, until my son purchased a few bottles, and requested me to try it; after taking it a few times, it had a most happy effect on me; my confidence increased, and after taking three bottles, my dyspepsia, or disease of the stomach, was nearly if not entirely cured. I now feel mysoif a new man, and in better health than for years. I am certain the cure in my case was made by this Hampton's Vegetable Tincture alone. Since my cure I have recommended the tincture to a number of my friends, who have also been relieved by it. Some of the cure have been as rapid and equally wonderful as mine.

I present my respects to Messrs. Mortimer & Mowbray, the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is shove price; and from my cure, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my tent that life was really a burden. The attack of it on the proprietors of this valuable medicine, and say to them its value is above price; and from my core, and what I have seen of its effects on others, I shall ever feel it my duty to recommend it to the suffering. I have no doubt many valuable lives will be prolonged by its use. I hope the affilicted will cast aside their prejudices and give it a trial. Yours most respectfully,

(Signed)

John Loye.

The above is extracted from a letter from a gentleman sixty years of age, and of high character. He says: "I have given but a faint idea of my sufferings; I feel inadequate to the task." We also have received, in the last few days, letters from two of our most worthy and well-known citizens, giving two remarkable cures of spinal disease. But yesterday one of the oldest merchants reported that he was cured of neuralgia of the head, of years standing, and so bed that his teeth fell out from its effects. Call and see letters. Was there ever so many cures, wonderful cures, made by any other medicine. All we hask of the afflicted is that they try Hamphon's Vogetable Tincture, the great purifier of the blood and cure for all chronic diseases, as dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and all complaints of the stomach, bowels, &c.

The Examination at Lancaster of the Christiana Rioters.

LANCASTER, September 23, p. m.—The magistrates met in the Court-house at 11 o'clock this morning, for the purpose of hearing Cast-ner, Hanaway, Elijah Lewis, and others, charged with aiding and abetting in the Sadsbury township murder, and also with treason in resisting the execution of the laws of the United States.

The following counsel appeared on the part of the Commonwealth—Hon. John L. Thompson, District Attorney; William B. Fordney, esq.; Thomas E. Franklin, Attorney General of Lancaster county; George L. Ashmead, esq. ancaster county; George L. Ashmead, esq. of Philadelphia, a representative of the United States authorities in place of John W. Ash-mead, United States District Attorney, absent on official business; and Robert J. Brent, Attorney General of Maryland.

For the defence—Thaddeus Stephens, Reah Frazer, Ford, Kline, and Dickey, esq'rs. Long before the hour for the examination to ommence, the court-room was crowded to excess, and the most intense interest was manifested in the proceedings.

Five witnesses were examined, among whom were United States Marshal Kline, Dr. Pierce, Nothing important, further than what has heretofore been published, has as yet been elicited. However, it is apparent that a strong case of treason has been made out.

The defence intimated that they had son thirty witnesses to be examined. The case will probably not be got through before Thursday

It seems to be the general impression among the members of the bar that the prisoners will be committed to answer the charge of treason against the United States. The crowd in attendance continued very large

TRENTON, (N. J.,) September 24th. — The September term of the United States circuit court opened here yesterday. The grand jury found two indictments. The civil docket was then called, and the principal case was Goodyear vs. Day, involving the validity of the Goodyear India Rubber Patents. The action in law being first in order, the defendants expressed them-selves desirous of trial. The plaintiffs making no motion, the defendants' counsel moved nonsuit. The court declined to consider the motion at this time, and refused to try the case in the absence of Judge Grier. It was accordingly postponed till his arrival on Tuesday

STILL ANOTHER of our most talented and highly respectable citizens speaks for Hampton's Viegerable retizens speaks for Hampton's Ebellinger of Mowbrey:—Gentlemen: My daughter having been afflicted for more than a year with the spinal disease, and having tried every remedy that was prescribed by some of our best physicians, without affording her any apparent relief, I fortunately was advised by a friend to try a bottle of "Dr. Hampton's Vegotable Timeture," which relieved her of her pain in less than twenty-four hours. I am piensed to say that since she took it she has been free from pain, and she is gradually gaining strength, which I attribute entirely to the restorative properties of this medicine. I believe if it were more extensively used, it would do more good in the removal of such disease incident to the human family than what is usually prescribed. what is usually prescribed.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE,

AND THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS. BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

Owing the hats revolutions and counter-revolutions among the nations of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession, and of which "the end is not yet," the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of interest hithertounknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the historian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The following is their list, viz:

ollowing is their list, viz: THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW, THE EDINBURGH REVIEW, THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW, THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, and BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE.

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderate In these periodicals are contained the views, moderater, though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greater parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Black wood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edin burgh Review" Whig, and the "Westminster Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment of the best contained by the contain Liberal. The "North British Review" owes its establishment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland, and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It was originally edited by Dr. Chalmers, and now, since his death, is conducted by his sou-in-law, Dr. Hauna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very highest order. The "Westuninster," though reprinted under that title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westuninster," it being in fact a union of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under separate titles. It has, therefore, the advantage, by this combination, of uniting in one work the best features of both, as heretofore issued.

The above Periodicals are reprinted in New York, immediately on their arrival by the British steamers, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Magazine being an exact fac simile of the Edinburgh edition.

For any one of the four Reviews, $3 00 per annum.
For any two, do 5 00 "
For any three, do 7 00 "
For all four of the Reviews, 8 00 "
For Blackwood's Magazine, 3 00 "
For Blackwood and three Reviews, 9 00 "
For Blackwood and four Reviews, 10 00 "

Mr. Robert Scarz—Dear Sir: I have looked over the entire series of your valuable publications with much interest and profit; and am quite surprised at the amount of literacy labor you have performed, and the research it count have cost you to obtain so many fine illustrations, while you have an active superintendence of an extensive business. I am also gratified at the decidedly meral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the knesding troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.

This well known and extensive establishment invites Merchants, Manufacturers, and Bankers, to an investigation of its system, and gratuitous test of its records of the standing and responsibility citraders in the U. States.
Our increased patronage has enabled us, during the past year, to open offices in Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, and New Orleans; these, in connection with our long established offices in Boston, New York, and Baltimore, enable us to offer facilities and advantages which time and experience alone could accumulate, and which we believe are unequalled.
We are prepared to make collections in any of the States, Territories, Gamada, England, Ireland, Scotland, France, Germany, and in any commercial port of the world, and will pay particular attention to old and doubtful debts, in the collection of which class we have extraordinary facilities, and have been unusually successful.
